Harold was born on August 18, 1942, in Fort Worth, Texas. He proudly served his country as a Sergeant in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. Following his military service, he earned a master's degree in engineering and spent his career working in the structural steel industry, where his knowledge, dedication, and work ethic were deeply respected.

Harold enjoyed spending time with his friends and watching sports at American Legion Post 516, a place that meant a great deal to him and where he found camaraderie and community.

Above all else, Harold cherished his family. He was the most amazing husband, father, and grandfather, whose love and guidance shaped generations.

Harold is preceded in death by his beloved wife, Robbi Jean Miller; his parents, Aaron and Pauline Miller; his sister, Melba Jones; and his nephew, Dale Jones.

Harold is survived by his daughters, Paige Miller and Brooke Gartner (Robert); his grandchildren, Mason, Gavin, and Reagan; and his nieces and nephews.
